

Department of English Annual Report

Degree College, Pati, Champawat

Session: 2021-22

Academic Year: 2021-22

The Department of English at Degree College, Pati, Champawat has been a hub of academic excellence and literary enthusiasm since its inception. This report highlights the department's achievements, activities, and initiatives undertaken during the academic year 2021-22.

The department boasts a team of dedicated and qualified faculty members:

Dr. JAGAT SINGH BISHT, Assistant Professor & Head

Academic Activities:

- 1. Teaching: The department offered undergraduate courses in English Literature and Language, catering to approximately 200 students.
- 2. Seminars and Workshops: The department organized two seminars on "Indian Writing in English" and "Literary Criticism" featuring renowned scholars as guest speakers.
- 3. Literary Club: The department's literary club, "The Bookworms," conducted regular book reviews, poetry recitations, and literary quizzes, fostering a culture of reading and critical thinking.

Co-Curricular Activities:

- 1. Annual Literary Festival: The department hosted its annual literary festival, "Lit Feast," featuring poetry recitations, short story readings, and a literary quiz competition.
- 2. Debates and Elocution: Students from the department participated in inter-collegiate debates and elocution competitions, showcasing their oratory skills.

3. Theatre Performances: The department's drama club staged two plays, "The Importance of Being Earnest" and "The Glass Menagerie," receiving accolades from audiences and critics alike.

4. Library: The department has access to a well-stocked library with a vast collection of literary texts, journals, and reference materials.

Conclusion:

The Department of English at Degree College, Pati, Champawat has had a productive and eventful academic year. The department remains committed to providing a stimulating academic environment, fostering literary enthusiasm, and promoting critical thinking and creativity among its students.

BY

Dr. JAGAT SINGH BISHT, Assistant Professor & Head

Department of English Annual Report

Degree College, Pati, Champawat

Session: 2022-2023

The Department of English at Degree College, Pati, Champawat has continued to uphold its tradition of academic excellence and literary enthusiasm during the session 2022-2023. This report highlights the department's achievements, activities, and initiatives undertaken during the academic year.

Faculty Profile:

The department boasts a team of dedicated and qualified faculty member-

Dr. JAGAT SINGH BISHT, Assistant Professor & Head

Academic Activities:

- 1. Teaching: The department offered undergraduate courses in English Literature and Language, catering to approximately 250 students.
- 2. Seminars and Workshops: The department organized three seminars on "Contemporary Literary Trends," "Literary Criticism," and "Creative Writing" featuring renowned scholars and writers as guest speakers.
- 3. Literary Club: The department's literary club, "The Bookworms," conducted regular book reviews, poetry recitations, and literary quizzes, fostering a culture of reading and critical thinking.

Co-Curricular Activities:

- 1. Annual Literary Festival: The department hosted its annual literary festival, "Lit Fest," featuring poetry recitations, short story readings, and a literary quiz competition.
- 2. Debates and Elocution: Students from the department participated in inter-collegiate debates and elocution competitions, showcasing their oratory skills.
- 3. Theatre Performances: The department's drama club staged two plays, "The Glass Menagerie" and "The Importance of Being Earnest," receiving accolades from audiences and critics alike.

Infrastructure and Resources:

- 1. Library: The department has access to a well-stocked library with a vast collection of literary texts, journals, and reference materials.
- 2. Digital Classroom: The department has introduced digital classrooms, enabling faculty members to use technology-enhanced teaching methods.

Challenges and Future Plans:

- 1. Faculty Development: The department aims to provide opportunities for faculty development and capacity building through workshops and training programs.

2. Curriculum Revision: The department plans to revise its curriculum to incorporate contemporary literary theories and texts.

3. Collaborations: The department seeks to establish collaborations with other institutions and literary organizations to enhance academic and research opportunities.

Conclusion:

The Department of English at Degree College, Pati, Champawat has had a productive and eventful academic year. The department remains committed to providing a stimulating academic environment, fostering literary enthusiasm, and promoting critical thinking and creativity among its students.

BY

Dr. JAGAT SINGH BISHT, Assistant Professor & Head

Department of English Annual Report

Degree College, Pati, Champawat

Session: 2023-2024

Introduction:

The Department of English at Degree College, Pati, Champawat has continued to uphold its tradition of academic excellence and literary enthusiasm during the session 2023-2024. This report highlights the department's achievements, activities, and initiatives undertaken during the academic year.

Faculty Profile:

Dr. JAGAT SINGH BISHT, Assistant Professor & Head

The department boasts a team of dedicated and qualified faculty member-

Academic Activities:

1. Teaching: The department offered undergraduate courses in English Literature and Language, catering to approximately 300 students.
2. Seminars and Workshops: The department organized four seminars on "Contemporary Literary Trends," "Literary Criticism," "Creative Writing," and "Language and Culture" featuring renowned scholars and writers as guest speakers.
3. Literary Club: The department's literary club, "The Bookworms," conducted regular book reviews, poetry recitations, and literary quizzes, fostering a culture of reading and critical thinking.

Co-Curricular Activities:

1. Annual Literary Festival: The department hosted its annual literary festival, "Lit Fest," featuring poetry recitations, short story readings, and a literary quiz competition.
2. Debates and Elocution: Students from the department participated in inter-collegiate debates and elocution competitions, showcasing their oratory skills.
3. Theatre Performances: The department's drama club staged three plays, "The Glass Menagerie," "The Importance of Being Earnest," and "Hamlet," receiving accolades from audiences and critics alike.

Infrastructure and Resources:

1. Library: The department has access to a well-stocked library with a vast collection of literary texts, journals, and reference materials.
2. Digital Classroom: The department has introduced digital classrooms, enabling faculty members to use technology-enhanced teaching methods.

Challenges and Future Plans:

1. Faculty Development: The department aims to provide opportunities for faculty development and capacity building through workshops and training programs.
2. Curriculum Revision: The department plans to revise its curriculum to incorporate contemporary literary theories and texts.
3. Collaborations: The department seeks to establish collaborations with other institutions and literary organizations to enhance academic and research opportunities.

Conclusion:

The Department of English at Degree College, Pati, Champawat has had a productive and eventful academic year. The department remains committed to providing a stimulating academic environment, fostering literary enthusiasm, and promoting critical thinking and creativity among its students.

Dr. JAGAT SINGH BISHT, Assistant Professor & Head